DESCRIPTION

The Ore Shila Stone custom basin is a true masterpiece, meticulously crafted by the skilled artisans of Valley Bath & Kitchen. It bears the unique touch of Punjabi-Canadian illustrator and video game artist, Anu Chouhan, whose creative vision brought it to life. Anu's inspiration for this remarkable piece was to infuse it with vibrancy, joy, and a touch of whimsy, all while staying true to its underlying theme.

The basin's design features an enchanting tapestry of interconnected blooming flowers and stars, each element carefully symbolizing the journey of self-growth and the profound significance of supporting one another to attain happiness and success.

This exquisite creation will soon find its way to a noble cause, as it is set to be auctioned off in support of the Be The Light Foundation. Every single penny raised through this auction will be dedicated to providing scholarships for aspiring South Asian females, empowering them to pursue their dreams and aspirations.

In owning this remarkable piece, you not only acquire a work of artistry and symbolism but also become a part of a meaningful mission to illuminate the paths of young women striving for excellence and success.
